(9) Sentencing Information

The Sentencing Commission has encouraged prosecutors prior to the entry of a plea of guilty to disclose to a defendant the facts and circumstances of the offense and offender characteristics, then known to the prosecuting attorney, that are relevant to the application of the sentencing guidelines. U.S.S.G. §6B1.2, p.s. comment. To insure that my client can make an informed and intelligent decision regarding the possible or probable consequences of pleading guilty or requesting a trial, I request that you advise me of any facts and circumstances presently known to the government or reasonably discoverable, that relate to sentencing issues under the sentencing guidelines, or to calculation of the applicable sentencing guideline range, should my client be convicted of anyone or more of the charges in the complaint.

More specifically, I request that as soon as possible you provide me with the following information as to this case:

- What guidelines does the government contend are applicable?
- What aggravated offense characteristics, if any, does the government contend are applicable?
- What adjustments, if any, does the government contend are applicable?
- Upon what grounds, if any, will the government seek a departure from the guidelines?
- What criminal history category does the government contend is applicable?

I am requesting any information that would bear upon computation of the following sentencing and guideline factors:

- Base offense level
- Specific offense characteristics
- Relevant conduct
- Adjustments or criminal history

I also request any guilt-related Brady information that is favorable to my client and material to the court's determination of a sentence under the sentencing guidelines in the event of a plea of guilty or conviction.

Pursuant to your continuing duty to disclose information [FRCrP (c)], immediately advise me of new information as it becomes available. If you have any questions regarding the nature of the requests contained in this discovery letter, please contact me. I look forward to your early response.

Sincerely,
